“I thought
breast cancer was
the only thing
women had to worry about.”

I learned that as a woman, I'm at risk for bone loss and even heart disease, which causes more deaths in women than breast cancer. So now I get annual screenings, and I can relax.
